Anti-Spam Policy

Last Updated: [November 10, 2026]
[M&M Technology Inc] ("we," "our," or "us") enforces a strict, zero-tolerance policy against spam. This Anti-Spam Policy governs your use of our website, platform, and services (collectively, the "Services"). By using our Services, you agree to comply with this policy.

1. Definition of Spam

We define spam as any unsolicited, automated, or bulk electronic message sent without the recipient's prior, explicit consent. This includes, but is not limited to:

- Unsolicited commercial email (UCE) or bulk email.
- Automated comments, trackbacks, or forum posts.
- Unsolicited direct messages on social media or internal communication platforms.
- Deceptive, misleading, or falsified message headers, subject lines, or sender identities.

2. Strict Prohibitions

You are strictly prohibited from using our Services, network, or infrastructure to:

- Transmit, distribute, or facilitate the sending of spam.
- Harvest email addresses, phone numbers, or other personal data from our platform.
- Utilize scripts, bots, or automated software to generate accounts, posts, or messages.
- Host pages or content designed to manipulate search engine rankings (search spam) or redirect users to malicious software.

3. Email & Communication Compliance

If you utilize our Services to communicate with third parties, you must strictly adhere to all applicable international anti-spam laws, including the US CAN-SPAM Act, the Canadian Anti-Spam Legislation (CASL), and the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).
All commercial electronic messages sent through or related to our Services must:

- Include an accurate, clear, and non-deceptive subject line and header information.
- Clearly identify the message as an advertisement or solicitation.
- Include a valid, physical postal address of the sender.
- Provide a clear, conspicuous, and functional "unsubscribe" or opt-out mechanism.
- Honor opt-out requests within 10 business days.

4. Policy Violations and Enforcement

We actively monitor our platform for patterns indicative of spam. If we determine that a user has violated this policy, we reserve the right to take immediate action without prior notice, including:

Deleting or blocking the offending content.

Temporarily suspending or permanently terminating the user's account and access to the Services.

Imposing IP address blocks or domain bans.

Reporting the activity and cooperating with law enforcement or regulatory authorities.

5. Reporting Spam

If you believe you have received unsolicited or unauthorized communications originating from our Services or mimicking our brand, please report it immediately by emailing us at: [abuse@mandm-tech.com]. Please include the headers and content of the suspected spam message.
